Signature Talk

Analysis of Legend of the Ice People a.k.a. ÍSFÓLKID for Reykjavík
Databeers #6.

Inspired by the literary podcast I co-hosted, ÍSKISUR.

A Surprising Insight

What surprised most about my presentation at Reykjavík Databeers was the audience's reaction:

- ▶ They didn't expect a data-driven angle to ÍSFÓLKID.

Take-Home Message

Anything can be data-driven with the right mindset. Data is everywhere; it's about looking for it and using it. Embrace data for fresh insights, even in unexpected domains.

- ▶ 2012: Became the internet cat lady – Memes ⇒ Friends' Cat pics.
- ▶ 2016: Inspired by My Dad Wrote A Porno podcast.
- ▶ Solution: Read ÍSFÓLKID with our twist.
- ▶ Special Segment: (Internet) Cat of the Week.

TL;DR: My Dad Wrote a Porno (2015–)

A 3-time Webby Award-winning comedic podcast where host Jamie Morton reads his father's amateur erotic novel. With friends James Cooper and Alice Levine, they hilariously dissect awkward, improbable tales blending family and risqué fiction.

About ÍSKISUR

- ▶ A literary and feline entertainment podcast*
- ▶ Discuss the erotic and surreal book series The Legend of the Ice People by Margit Sandemo
- ▶ Each episode covers part of a book from the series and concludes with a segment on internet cats
